

*Please Join Us
For A Hollywood Style Premiere of*
The Carolyn Jackson Story

Sunday, January 21, 2018
The Howard Theater
308 N. Main Street
Taylor, Texas 76574
(Free Admission)

3:00pm Red Carpet Entry

Hosted by Tia Stone, President, Taylor Chamber of Commerce.

4:00pm The Carolyn Jackson Story begins on the downstairs screen.

Free admission. Concessions will be open. Opening comments by Pat Helbert, Ex-students Association.

6:00pm Reception with Mrs. Jackson at the Duck Room.

Located on the first wing of the former Northside campus, corner of North Drive and Dellinger.

Please join Carolyn Jackson, along with The Taylor High School Ex-students' Association, The Taylor Chamber of Commerce and Taylor ISD, as we celebrate the life and career of fourth generation Taylorite and Duck Hall of Fame legend, Carolyn Gossett Jackson (class of '44).

Often referred to as a pioneer woman in broadcasting, Mrs. Jackson talks in this video interview about growing up in Taylor, graduating with the first broadcasting degree offered by the University of Texas, and entering a field that was dominated by men. She also talks about her TV show, The Carolyn Jackson Show, and a few of her many interviews with Hollywood's top celebrities.

This Premiere showing includes 1 hour of highlights from The Carolyn Jackson Story that will be posted in its entirety on the Taylor ISD You Tube channel, Duck Hall of Fame series, the following day.

DucksQuack Productions
Taylor ISD Office of Communications
3101 North Main Street, Suite 104
Taylor, Texas 76574
(512) 365-1391